

FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE AT JACKSONVILLE

Culinary Arts & Hospitality Dining Room Spring 2017 – American Regional Foods

Downtown Campus
Building C-Room C-106

The Culinary Arts & Hospitality Dining Room is a simulated restaurant lab located at the Downtown Campus in building C, Room C106. It is operated by students and staff in the Florida State College at Jacksonville culinary arts and hospitality programs in a simulated fine-dining setting. As a participant in this learning experience, we ask that you dress in a manner consistent with the learning space, commonly described as “business casual” (no shorts, t-shirts, flip-flops, etc.). Gratuities are appreciated and are utilized for special student activities carried out by the classes at the end of each term.

For reservations, please call (904) 633-8151.

Lunch seatings are 11 a.m., 11:30 a.m. and noon | Dinner seatings are 6:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

| Lunch served Tuesday and Thursday | Dinner served Thursday evening | Region |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------------|
| February 7 and 9 | February 9 | New England |
| February 14 and 16 | February 16 | New Orleans |
| February 21 and 23 | February 23 | Southern |
| February 28 and March 2 | March 2 | Heartland |
| March 7 and 9 | March 9 | Southwest |
| March 14 and 16 | March 16 | California |
| March 28 and 30 | March 30 | Northwest |
| April 4 and 6 | April 6 | Florida |
| April 11 and 13 | April 13 | Hawaii |